My ability to understand business needs from both a customer and a technical perspective allows me to be truly consultative. With the privilege of understanding the artworks of Masters, Senior Contemporary, and Contemporary Artists, I work every day to master my skill.

I aspire to connect with artists and galleries globally. Being a young and practicing artist myself, I know what it takes to get to the soul of an artwork. I want to catalyze the process of how people approach an artwork and a silent dialogue gets conducted. Love watching this process of someone falling for artwork, I want to become the matchmaker and let the chemistry do its work.

The mantra that I follow in this journey is to keep going and growing and to have more art and love in our life.
